Re: Demetrius Hill v. County of Suffolk, et al.
Index No.: CV-02 3901 (DRH) (MLO)

Dear Judge Orenstein:

I write in response to an unsigned and undated letter to the Court which requests that plaintiff be allowed to depose defendants and/or that a conference be scheduled.

The Court should refrain from granting the relief since it is impossible to discern who authored the letter. Again, the letter is not signed. In the first paragraph, the writer states that he/she is writing at the request of plaintiff but does not identify himself/herself. In a possible contradiction, plaintiff's name is typewritten below the valediction.

Very truly yours,
